Dear Madam:

It is our pleasure at this time to advise that we have a proposal of importance which will be of interest to you regarding your "slow" or "inactive" investments with our company.

It is necessary that we discuss the matter with you in person and in confidence.

Will you kindly call in person in the next few days, at this time we will gladly explain in detail our reasons for this most important communication. If you prefer to call in the evening please phone for a definite appointment.

Very truly yours
